

shutterstock - 146244095

Welcome back everyone, hoping you had a great half term break. We apologise for not getting out our newsletter back in January, the first half term of the year has ran away with us! Please note we will have termly consultations week commencing 20th March 2023, please speak to your Key worker to book in a slot. Thank you.

DATES FOR YOUR DIARY

Spring Term

- Pancake Day – 21st Feb
- World Book Day – 2nd Mar
- Red nose Day – 17th March
- Mother's Day – 19th March
- Termly Consultations – w/c 20th March
- Last Day of Term – 31st March
- Theatre Visit & End of Term Picnic
- Easter Holidays – 3rd – 14th April
- Back to Preschool – 17th April
- Committee Mtg – 28th April
- Bank Holidays – 1st May & 8th May

WORLD BOOK DAY – 2nd MARCH 2023

We would love for your child to come into preschool on the 2nd March in their pyjamas and bring their favourite bedtime story.

It will be lovely to share the stories

FARM TRIP – JULY 2023

We are currently looking at our annual farm trip – with the suggestions being Godstone Farm, Bocketts Farm, and Washbrooks Farm. Please make your choice known on the facebook group post, we will go with the majority. Costs will range from £28 - £32 per parent/child. Further details to follow.

Red Nose Day 17th March
We will NOT be fundraising in setting; however, we will celebrate this with activities, feel free to send in your child in something red and then make your own donations in your families.

COMMITTEE MEETING

The next Committee meeting is being held on Friday 28th April 2023
at 10.30am
Refreshments are provided

We are excited to announce another theatre visit, they will come on the last day of term. (31st March)

We will be inviting ALL Children and Parents into setting that day.

We are then hoping to have an Easter Picnic to end the Spring Term.

We are watching "Billy Beware" – more details to follow

We want to welcome new staff into the setting, for those who will remember Shannon she returned from Maternity Leave in January – welcome back.

Also, a big welcome to Louise and Erica.

Please say hello

Snack Time

At preschool, we encourage healthy eating. We request that you bring a piece of Fruit/Breadsticks/Cheese once or twice a week.

